New Book—Luxury Homes of Texas by Jolie Carpenter—showcases the state's finest architects and builders with a photographic tour of their finest and most captivating creations

Houston—Luxury Homes of Texas (Signature Publishing Group, an imprint of Panache Partners, October 2009) presents hundreds of vibrant photographs of exquisite residences created by 75 of Texas' most respected professionals. The impressive 368-page volume, which features the work of Röhe & Wright Builders, is infused with upward of 300 full-color images showcasing the state's best in residential design and construction.

Insightful profiles introduce readers to the visionaries who have conceived of these incredible homes and brought them to life; philosophies, perspectives and creative inspirations are freely shared. Luxury Homes of Texas invites you to experience the state's most beautiful homes created by firms like Houston-based Röhe & Wright Builders, which is celebrated for taking a team approach to each home they build, striving to do what's right for the client, the project and the community. The homes featured within range from timelessly traditional to delightfully contemporary; each responds to its locale and is a beautiful reflection of the collaborative efforts of architect, builder and residents. This diverse collection of luxury estates brilliantly captures the essence of the coveted Texas lifestyle. Whether you're a casual reader or an industry professional, you're sure to be inspired.

A Signature Publishing Group publication, Luxury Homes of Texas is distributed by Independent Publishers Group and available at Barnes & Noble, Borders and Amazon.com, among other chain and independent bookstores.
